WANT TERMINALS AT WEST NORFOLK

Former Atlantic and Danville Point Files Suit Against Southern.

SPEAK IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Governor Is Invited to Meeting.
Decide on Details of Monument.

Alleging about forty typewritten pages' worth of grievances against the Southern Railway, the West Norfolk Land and Improvement Company has filed its petition with the State Corporation Commission. By order issued yesterday, the commission sets September 20 at 11 o'clock for the hearing of the case.

It seems that the Atlantic and Danville Railroad had its terminals at West Norfolk, maintaining yards there and facilities for travel across the river to Norfolk. After the purchase of the road by the Southern, the terminals were removed to Pinners Point, where they are now located. All of which, of course, is alleged to be to the great injury and financial loss of the people of West Norfolk and of

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau,
The Times-Dispatch,
1020 Hull Street,
Phone Madison 118.

Hon. Carter Glass, candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Swanson, will address the residents of this ward at the courthouse to-night. The meeting probably will be held in the open air, so that Mr. Glass may speak from the handstand at the back of the courthouse. The subject of the address is announced as "Political Conditions in Virginia."

Mrs. Mary B. High, aged fifty-two years, of 908 Semmes Avenue, died at her residence Wednesday night. Her body was taken to Bailey, N. C., yesterday, where interment will be made.

Frank Linwood Munn, twenty-three months old, died at the home of his parents, Thomas E. and Irene Munn, at 203 East Thirty-second Street, Swansboro, Wednesday afternoon. The funeral services will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon from the home, and interment will be made in Maury Cemetery.

A deed was recorded in the Hustings Court yesterday with the consideration named as $1,300. The sale was made by Walter L. Averett and wife to Ada Mabel Bullock and Blanche Lee Bullock, conveying the property 117 East Eighth Street.

The fight for the position of deputy-sergeant continues with petitions and canvassing. Each candidate has many friends who are circulating the petitions and doing all they can to see that their favorite is chosen for the position.

PROSECUTION CLOSES CASE.

Defense in Sutherland Trial Will Be Started To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Big Stone Gap, Va., August 24.—In the case of W. C. D. Sutherland, the alleged absconding cashier of Dickenson county, on trial here in the Federal court, with Judge McDowell presiding, the prosecution closed its case to-day. The defense asked for continuance for preparation, but this was refused by the court. Books and records were introduced, and the first witness for the defense will be called in the morning.
